

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO APPLY

We may ask you to supply supporting documents as part of your application process.

These documents must be original or certified copies. If they're written in a language other than English, you'll need to submit a certified translated version along with the original copy. If any of your documents feature a previous name, please provide us with official evidence of your name change.

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATIONS

- Awards, certificates or official transcripts from previous undergraduate or postgraduate study.
- If your course has GPA requirements, and you fall under that range, you may still be eligible for the course you will just need to provide a Statement of Intent.

Find the specific entry requirements of your course here.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

You may need to supply evidence of your English language proficiency. There are English language requirements for this course.

Find the specific entry requirements of your course here.

There are a few ways you can prove your proficiency in English, namely through:

- Previous study in Australia or a recognised English-speaking country, including but not limited to Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, South Africa, United Kingdom and the USA
- Prior study at a recognised institution or in a recognised qualification
- Through an English language test

Learn more about the English language requirements at UC.

WORK EXPERIENCE

We might also request evidence of your relevant work experience.

- For courses that specify work experience as an entry requirement, you should include an up-to-date CV and a Statement of Employment in your application.
- Master of Education applicants will also be required to provide evidence of their teacher registration.

If you have any questions regarding what documents you need or want assistance with your application, book a 15-minute call with a Student Enrolment Adviser.

Book a 15-minute call